Oct 3, 2017 Hi, I had this same issue when I bought my HP Elitebook 830p and wanted to change my BIOS Serial Number. If you look under the G3 Service tag on the back of your laptop and you can see two numbers one of them is 0B4 which I assume is the laptop serial number I just opened my laptop and changed the number to 0070 which is the new number I just assigned to the bios. Then I went back into the BIOS and changed the serial number back to the original number. The number was still correct in the bios so I assume the computer does not trust the new number since it has not been assigned
