Elden Ring (2022)

► Review by “Imperial” at Game(dot)Fake “There is a story that connects the present and the past; as if the history of the game’s main characters “was written in the plane of destruction.” Dark fantasy action RPG game, it is the title of the first game that was created after the “Land of Oblivion”. □I□ It is a story of a fearless and talented young man, named “Tarnished”, who gathered with a group of people, to fight against the evil. □II□ This game has an unique action feature, when you attack enemies and the beasts, the sound of the attack is as if you are playing a bass guitar. □III□ You can participate in a collection-based online game, and can earn points and items by destroying a monster. □IV□ Sword, bow and arrows, and sorcery—weapons are given by 2 points. □V□ Armour—3 points. □VI□ It may be necessary to get an item from a monster, so you must hunt. □VII□ If you battle the monsters, with your magic, the strength of the magic is expressed as the strength of the attack. □VIII□ When you defeat an enemy, you can attack him during the period of randonnne, kill it and enjoy eating its flesh. □IX□ The food that they eat is reflected in the appearance of the weapon and armour. ► Review by “Murasoke” at Rock, Paper, Shotgun “The simultaneous-real-time online RPG must be a heady mix of combat, strategy, and role-play, and the MMO must connect those elements as well. Tarnished plays exactly that game. The combat is an interesting mix of turn-based and real time, and it’s here that the depth of the game shines. There’s just so much you can do in this game. It’s fun to fight and slay monsters, to turn them into meat, and to later convert that meat into armour and weapons. Tarnished is an MMO that’s packed with content, fun to play and an all around fantastic action RPG. It features a robust crafting system where you can harvest materials from enemies to make better weapons and armour. Though it’s still early days bff6bb2d33

Hybrid approach to create hatching and natal environments in a ludic construction of color-coded building blocks. Reproductive strategies are an important and often overlooked component of innovation and the evolutionary success of an ecological community. One of the dominant modes of selection among different ecological communities is mediated by abiotic and biotic parameters inducing differential reproductive success. In this work, we present a novel variation of mass mortality-induced reproduction in an artificial ecological community made up of two distinct populations of bacterial slime molds. One population responded to a changing environment by relocating away from the unfavorable growth conditions and by spawning, being therefore the dominant one. The second population, even after having triggered sporadic mass mortalities, continued using a dormant state to outcompete other populations at the bottom of the container. We also demonstrate that it was possible to create the abiotic and biotic conditions to favor one population by applying appropriate colors to the blocks that were used by the members of the defined group. Due to this, the number of progeny of the population can be increased by several fold thus optimizing the chances of survival as new niches are discovered. Although further work needs to be carried out in order to discuss the multiple evolutionary implications of the proposed approach, we believe this is a viable alternative to the current methods of generating strong selective pressure in microbial communities.

Rival Middleweight's Josesito Lopez and Esteban López fought in December as part of a 10-bout card held by the Presidency of Boxing in San José, Costa Rica. Both 13-2 (7 KOs) fighters dominated their opponents throughout the fight and won via unanimous decision. A fight between Luis "Tough" Santa Cruz and Julio "El Matador" Angulo was added to the card. Luis suffered a routine cut on his right eyelid and he was taken to his dressing room for immediate medical attention, further delaying the fight. A backup bout was held between Angulo and Carlos Aguilar. The fight was won by Carlos who earned himself the opportunity to fight Santa Cruz on September 14. The card also held Josesito Lopez vs Esteban López
