Finding and submitting software distribution websites for your application is the first step to getting downloads for your software. You have to find the websites and submit your software. But with Turbo Software Submitter, you don't have to worry about this anymore! Turbo Software Submitter will submit your software for you, in a single click, saving you the time and effort of finding and submitting software distribution websites for your software! It contains over 250 websites that you can submit your software with, including FilePlanet, TSW Soft, AppStore, SoftWorld, MacUpdate and File.io. The application has a visual user interface, so it is very simple and intuitive to use. It also has the ability to check if the submission pages you are interested in actually exist, helping you save a lot of time and effort in your search. The application can submit your software to as many websites as you want, at the same time. It saves the information about the websites you want to submit your software with in its settings and also remembers which websites are already in the list, so it will not send submissions to them a second time. The application requires a legitimate PAD file of your application, but you can use it to submit your software to many different websites, at the same time. Turbo Software Submitter Reviews Turbo Software Submitter is the perfect piece of software to submit your applications to hundreds of applications websites on a single click. Turbo Software Submitter is really easy to use and a much simpler solution than manually filling in the forms. It has a nice and user-friendly interface with a variety of helpful icons and a nice clean design. After you have it installed, the software will fill in the information required and will either simply submit your application for you or, if you need it, will send you the submission request. There's no immediate indication on the software if the submission was successful or not. An application must be approved by the website owner before it will appear on their site. In most cases, the software will attempt to submit the application and leave it up to the website owner to approve the submission. Overall, Turbo Software Submitter is a nice piece of software and is easy to use. It is certainly something I would use. Like any piece of software, this piece of software is going to make a slight difference to the way you submit your software applications for download. This software is going to automatically submit your application to websites that you specify in your
