League The recently launched drone racing league Liftoff FPV Drone Racing League is a four season event about to begin. It will feature the best and brightest in drone racing. Liftoff was awarded as London's International Drone Racing events in 2017 according to the British Department for Transport. All drones must be test-certified before they are allowed to be flown. There are six events of 10,000m, each of which offers a prize of £8000. The biggest part of the championship is the Drone Racing League. More than 110 teams from 28 European countries have already participated. The Belgian team of SB Racing has been granted 500m for the upcoming Liftoff competition. No doubt world champions of racing can be achieved. Drones and racing drones are becoming more popular all the time. The drone racing game is very popular, in fact, you will need it in order to download the FPV app. FPV is a way to use a video camera on a DJI Phantom drone. The app is designed to show a live aerial view when the drone takes off and lands. It is through this app, which you have to download on your smartphone and Android tablets, that FPV racing is done. This is as the competitors are able to see what is going on in real time. It's an incredible advantage, which many of the people flier have already used. Racing drone races are immensely popular. FPV race drone racing is becoming more widespread. There are many sports that are now streamed online. However, that is not the case in FPV drone racing. The FPV drone racing league is the first to be streamed on the internet. Jet-drone racing is quite popular in the United States. For the first time, FPV is coming to Europe, where drone racing is set to become the most popular drone sport. Liftoff FPV is scheduled to take place on Sunday May 13th at 22:00. There will be eight courses, each around 3,000m. The event kicks off with the first matches. There will be two preliminary matches, which will determine which of the teams will play in the final. So you get the chance to see the best of the best in FPV drone racing during the liftoff. We can bet that the battle will be very intense and attractive to watch. People are also expected to take part in the race. By participating, they get the chance to win a prize of £8,000. FPV drone racing is
